

ENVIRONMENT CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Across

2. Bears do this in the winter.
5. These flying animals hunt for rats, mice and insects at night. They depend on the forest for nesting and cover during the day.
6. It is the job of _____ to take care of our forests.
8. The _____ from trees cools the forest by 10 degrees.
11. Trees produce _____ that we need to breathe.
12. Homes for animals, clean air and water and a place to have fun are benefits of a well managed _____.

Down

1. Tree _____ hold the forest floor together and provide water and nutrients to the tree.
3. These animals prefer to live deep in the forest and like to climb rocks to seek out prey.
4. We use all of the parts of these living things to make the products we need every day.
6. These amphibians live in forests where they eat insects.
7. This type of animal lives in trees and while they enjoy a rat or snake for dinner every now and then, they prefer fish, swooping down and catching them in rivers and lakes.
9. Turkeys and other animals eat these hard seeds from trees and scatter them around the forest.
10. _____ climb trees, live in the hollow parts of trees and lay eggs in rotten logs. They feed on lizards, frogs, mice, squirrels and other forest animals.